FRIDAY, APRIL 18, 2014 vs. NEW YORK YANKEES

LH Erik Bedard (0-0, 0.00) vs. RH Hiroki Kuroda (2-1, 3.86)

First Pitch: 7:10 p.m. | Location: Tropicana Field, St. Petersburg, Fla. | TV: Sun Sports | Radio: WDAE 620 AM, WYGC 660 AM (Spanish)

Game No.: 17 (7-9) | All-Time Game No.: 2,607 (1,202-1,404) | All-Time Home Game No.: 1,303 (670-332)

BEN & JULES BOOK SIGNING—Tomorrow from 11 a.m.-1 p.m., 2B/OF Ben Zobrist and his wife, Julianna Zobrist, will hold a public book signing at the Tropicana Field Team Store for their new autobiography, Double Play...the book will be available there in the team store for $24.95.

RAY MATTER—The Rays have lost 4 straight games and been outscored 32-7 during the skid...this is their longest streak since losing 5 straight, Aug 26-29, 2013...Rays have slipped into a tie with Boston for fourth place in the AL East, 3.0 GB of first-place New York...at 7-9, the Rays have a losing record through 16 games for the 5th time in the last 7 years...the 2013 Rays began 6-10 (375) before going 86-61 (580) over the rest of the season.

BEDARDBEDARD—The Rays are the majors’ only unbeaten team in one-run games (4-0)....these wins account for their last 4 victories, including two 1-0 wins (April 8 at KC and Sat at CIN)

LUMBER IN SLUMBER—Through 16 games the Rays have scored only 47 runs (2.94 average) and are batting .221...both lowest in club history (prev: lows: 49 runs in 2001, 222 avg...in 2013)...the Rays .221 avg is 2nd lowest in the majors to Houston (.188)...in their last 10 games’ they’ve scored only 16 runs, fewer than a 10-game span since their inaugural season, which ended with 14 straight losses by various stretches in July 1998, they’re batting .194/264/305 (63-325)....in the first 6 games before the slump began, they scored 31 runs (5.2 per game) and hit .267/372/435.

The Rays have been shut out three times, tied with Seattle for most in the AL, and twice more have been blanked through 8 innings before scoring in the 9th.

BAD GEOMETRY—According to Mark Simon of ESPN.com, the Rays are batting .589 on hard-hit balls—the lowest mark in the majors, followed by the Mets at .590...major league average is .699.

The Rays have a .259 batting avg. on balls in play (major league avg—.292)...the lowest percentage of balls they put in play have fallen for hits...this is the 2nd-lowest mark in the majors to Houston (.233), and no team has sustained a BABIP that low over a full season since the 1989 Orioles (.259).

LITMUS TEST—The Rays are 0-8 when their starting pitcher fails to last 6 IP, and 7-1 when they do complete at least 6 IP...Rays starters have not pitched more than 5.0 innings in 4 straight games, only the second time in the last 5 seasons the Rays rotation has done this...the other was May 31–June 4, 2013...they haven’t gone 5 straight starts of 5.0 innings or fewer since Sep 8-14, 2006 (6 games).

TRIPLE KILLING—Last night in the 2nd inning 1B Sean Rodríguez bounced into a 5-4-3 triple play, becoming the first player to hit into a pair of triple plays since ATL Chipper Jones (2007, 2006) and before that, SD Tony Gwynn (1997, 1996) and the third time in third time in club history that they’ve had back-to-back triple plays...the Rays have been on the wrong end of a triple play—prev, Aug 16, 2011 at BOS (Rodríguez, 5-4-3) and June 11, 2006 at KC (Russell Branyan batting, 8-1-6-5).

Rodríguez added a home run in the 7th inning...the last player to hit into a triple play and homer in the same game was NY Russel Martin on Sep 27, 2011 at TB.

RAYS vs. YANKES—Last night’s 10-2 setback was the Rays most lopsided loss to the Yankees since April 10, 2010 at Tropicana Field (10-0)....this series features a stretch of 15 straight games vs. teams that had winning records in 2013 (5-7 so far)

The Rays are the majors’ only unbeaten team in one-run games (4-0)...these wins account for their last 4 victories, including two 1-0 wins (April 8 at KC and Sat at CIN)

EASTERN SUPREMACY—Since 2011, the Rays own the best record within the AL East at 128-97 (.584)....during this span they outscored four AL East opponents (BOS, NYY, BAL, TOR) all rank among the majors’ top 9 in runs scored—yet the Rays have recorded a 3.47 ERA, more than a run better than the worst at bat ball (4.48) vs. these four clubs.

BEDARDBEDARDBEDARD—Tonight LH Erik Bedard becomes the 21st starter pitching used by the Rays since 2008, fewest of any team in baseball (Giants 2nd with 24)....the Rays (45) and Padres (64) have each used more than twice as many starters in this span....of the 21...Bedard is the only third signed as a free agent to make a start, joining RH Roberto Hernandez and RH Jamey Wright (both in 2013).

MOUNTAINシーズン—The Rays have slipped into a tie with Boston for fourth place in the AL East, 3.0 GB of first-place New York...at 7-9, the Rays have a losing record through 16 games for the 5th time in the last 7 years...the 2013 Rays began 6-10 (375) before going 86-61 (580) over the rest of the season.

#70 JOE MADDON, MANAGER

- Begins 9th season as Rays manager…is 3rd-longest tenured manager in MLB after LA’s Mike Scioscia (15th) and MIN’s Ron Gardenhire (13th).
- Two-time AL Manager of the Year (2008, 2010).—only two other head coaches/managers under Florida’s major pro teams have lasted as long: Don Shula (Dolphins, 26 years) and John McKay (Bucs, 26 years).

+ RAYS NO. 7.—Will become the seventh starting pitcher used by the Rays this season, matching their total from 2009 and 2010 over each full season and one shy of their total in 2011 and 2012…in 2013, the Rays used 10 different starters—their most in one season since 2006 (12)…since 2008, however, Bedard will be the 21st starter used by the Rays, three fewer than any other club (Giants, 24).—The Rays have used the most starters during that span with 45.

+ SENIOR MOMENT.—Makes his start tonight at 35 years, 44 days—with the exception of 38-year-old RH Jamey Wright—who started on Sep 1, 2013 at OAK in a planned bullpen day—he is the oldest Rays starter since RH Hideki Irabu on July 15, 2005 vs. TOR (36 years, 318 days).

+ He is the fifth-highest pitcher to make a start in the AL this season, behind TOR R.A. Dickey (39), tonight’s opponent NYY Hiroki Kuroda (39), KC Bruce Chen (36) and BOS John Lackey (35).—Has more service time (10 years, 151 days) than all but one current Ray: C Joe Mollina (12 years, 45 days).

+ ONE APPEARANCE.—Selected to the major league roster on Saturday at the next day at CIN made his Rays debut in relief, totaling 2IP, 2HI, 1 R, 0 ER, 1 BB, 0 SO…worked the 5th and 6th innings in the 12-4 loss.

+ STILL SEARCHING.—Has never played for a postseason team.

+ SPRING TRAINING.—Came to camp as a non-roster invitee and made 5 apps (3 starts), going 2-2 with a 6.88 ERA (17-IP, 13-ER) while battling for the fifth starter role…the three pitchers who competed for that spot: RH Jake Odorizzi, LH Cesar Ramos and Bedard—are now all part of the Rays rotation…the Rays are his fifth major league team in 4 years.

+ HOW HE GOT HERE.—Originally signed a minor league contract with the Rays on Feb 14…exercised the opt-out clause in his contract and was re-signed on March 22…signed a minor league contract on March 28 and selected to the major league roster from Triple-A Durham on April 13.

+ RAYS NO. 7.

+ SENIOR MOMENT

+ HOW HE GOT HERE

+ TOP DESIGNS

+ LAST START—On Mon at BAL, allowed a career high 7-runs and 12 hits, most by a Rays starter since Matt Moore on June 9, 2013 vs. BAL (12)…allowed 6 hits in the first 2 innings, matching the most he had given up in either of his first 2 starts…allowed a career high 5 XBH (prev. 4, Aug 13, 2013 vs. SEA), all within his first 2 innings—his line: 5IP, 12 R, 0 ER, 1 BB, 6 SO, 95 pitches, 68 strikes.

+ 6 IS KEY—Since the start of last season, the Rays are 14-1 when he lasts 6 or more innings in a start—and 2-9 when he doesn’t.

+ STRAIGHT HEAT—Averaged 95.0 mph on his fastball last season, according to FanGraphs, making him the hardest-throwing starter in the AL (min. 100 IP)…TEX Derek Holland ranked 2nd at 93.6 mph.

+ RIGHTY TIGHTY—Since his recall last season he has held right-handed hitters to .261/.263/.251 in 219 at-bats…251 SLG is the lowest mark in the AL after his recall on June 1…this season, however, righties are 10-for-26 (.385) while lefties are 12-for-47 (.265)…on Mon at BAL, six of his 12 hits allowed were to right-handed hitters, a career high.

+ vs. NY:—is 3-0 with a 1.23 ERA (22-IP, 3-ER) in 3 starts vs. NY…became the first rookie with 3 wins over the Yankees in a season since TEX Kevin Brown (3) in 1989…according to Stats LLC, his 1.23 ERA was the 2nd lowest ever by a rookie vs. the Yankees (min. 20 IP), trailing only CWS Bill Long (1.13 ERA in 1987).—last start vs. NY—and only career start at Tampa Bay Field—was Aug 23, 2013: 7IP, 4HI, 2ER, 4SO, 0HR, 69 pitches, 42 strikes.—Yankees scored 4 runs in the top of the 14th to win, 5-1.
