Chicago White Sox Charities Mission

Established in 1990, Chicago White Sox Charities (CWSC) provides annual financial, in-kind and emotional support to hundreds of Chicago-based organizations, including those leading the fight against cancer, dedicated to improving the lives of Chicago's youth through education and health and wellness programs, and those offering support to children and families in crisis. With the generous support of White Sox fans, friends and sponsors, CWSC has donated more than $30 million, striving to improve the quality of life for Chicagoans of all ages, races and genders.
